THE MISSION

In December 2015, François Hollande, the French President, entrusted Philippe Bélaval, President of the Centre des monuments nationaux and Dominique Perrault, architect, membre de l'Institut, a mission of study and guidance on what could be the Ile de la Cité by 2040. 35 proposals bring up urban, cultural, tourist and environmental issues in whom the Island has to answer to become again the living heart the capital.

THE BOOK

In the continuity of the exhibition «Mission Île de la Cité: le coeur du coeur» presented at the Conciergerie from February to May 2017, the book Paris Île de la Cité Mission 2040 was published by Norma Publishing, in partnership with the Centre des monuments nationaux. It traces the history of the heart of Paris and the planning of tomorrow by relying on archival documents, sketches, engravings, maps and photographs.
